

MCQs

1) In testicular torsion, all the followings are true EXCEPT:

- A. The testis is higher with torsion than normal.
- B. Doppler gives useful information.
- C. The critical time for management is 10-12 hours.
- D. The other side has to be fixed also.

2) An 11 month/old boy born prematurely was brought to the clinic by his parents because his testes were not in the scrotum. His mother said that it descended during sleep, but it goes up again when she pulls it down. Which of the followings is true?

- A. There is scrotal hypoplasia.
- B. It is due to cremasteric reflex.
- C. Orchidopexy at 1-2 years is the treatment of choice.
- D. All of the above.

3) Regarding the inguinal hernia in infants and children :

- A. It is more common in female. F
- B. It is more common in premature infants. T
- C. Surgery is usually advised to be done after the age of 2 years. F
- D. Herniotomy is the treatment of choice. T
- E. Is commonly involving the Rt side. i.e Due to the late descent of the Rt. T