

Idiopathic Scrotal Edema

Introduction:

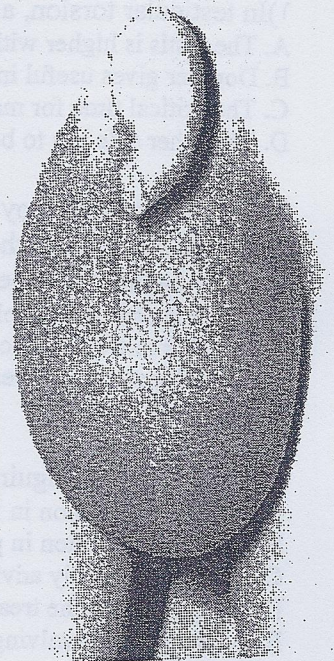

- ↳ Cause?
- ↳ Peak age: 4-5 yrs so young age.

Presentation:

- ↳ Just Swollen & redness in both scrotum.
- ↳ Minimal pain.
- ↳ Usually bilateral.
- ↳ Samoan color is very pathognomic.

Management:

- ⓐ Conservative, self limiting within 1-2 days

Important notes

- * Cough impulse is not applicable on children with hernia.
- * Transilluminable features:
 - i. Cyst
 - ii. Contain fluid.
 - iii. Fluid is clear.
- If you suspect a torsion in a patient send him directly to the OR.
- In inguinal hernia there may be no bulge but there is thickening in the spermatic cord <<<<very rare.
- If inguinal hernia contain fallopian tube, the ovary may be pulled and mistaken with inguinal lymphadenopathy.
- In young pt. always consider benign cases.

Acute Hydrocele:

- It is an infected hydrocele.
- It is a DDx for acute scrotum, also in incarcerated or strangulated hernias