

Psychiatry & Dermatology

Psychiatry				Dermatology
1-Course Objectives& Etiology in Psychiatry				1-The Language of Dermatology : Descriptive and Morphology Skills
2-Diagnosis /Classification				2-Structures and Functions of the skin : Basic Anatomy and Physiology
3-Psychiatric Interview & Hx / MSE				3-Introduction to Dermatology
4-Symptoms & Signs in Psychiatry – I				4-Psoriasis and other Papulosqamous Disorders
5-Symptoms & Signs in Psychiatry – II				5-General Principles of Eczema/Dermatitis (Atopic dermatitis and others)
6-Depressive disorders (MDD-Dysthymia)				6-Skin Infections
7-Bipolar disorders				7-Acne Vulgaris and Acne Related Disorder
8-Anxiety Disorders-I				8-Cutaneous Manifestations of SLE and other CTD (dermatomyositis, Scleroderma)
9-Anxiety Disorders-II & Related disorders				9-Hair Disorders and Pigmentary Disorder of Skin
10-Neurocognitive Disorders-I				10-Cutaneous Manifestations of Systemic Disease (purpura and vasculitis)
11-Neurocognitive Disorders-II				11-Blistering Disorders
12-Psychosomatic Disorder I				12-Drug Eruptions
13-Psychosomatic Disorder II				14-Dermatologic Emergencies
14-Psychotic Disorders-I Schizophrenia				PBL Case Scenario
15-Psychotic Disorders-II Others Psychotic Disorders				1-A red Scaly Rash
16-Personality Disorders				2-Too Early for an Itchy Rash
17-Suicidal Pt. & Aggressive Pt Assessment & management				3-Beyond Skin
18-Psychotherapy				4-A Young Man Bothered by His Facial
19-Substance Abuse Disorders-I				5-Progressive Red Spot
20-Substance Abuse Disorders-II
21-Child Psychiatry

Best of luck!
Aya AIDayel